

Trading Strategy: Algorithmic / Multi-Asset (Currencies, Metals, Indices, Agriculture, Crypto, Interest Rates)

Trading Description:

PRO Investing manages a variety of algorithmic trading portfolios, each tailored to specific market sectors and designed to optimize returns under diverse market conditions. The Alpha Centauri program utilizes a proprietary, ML-powered, multi-layer trading architecture to manage a diversified portfolio across global futures markets (GC, HG, ES, NQ, YM, RTY, NK, VX, ZW, ZS, ZC, CAD, BTC, UB).

Our strategy is built on two core components:

Intelligent Signal (ML-Powered Execution Layer): Our system identifies directional opportunities by analyzing market microstructure, volatility regimes, and macroeconomic catalysts. The ML leverages real-time market data, intermarket signals, and regime probability modeling to generate trading signals. The strategy is optimized to capture medium-term directional trends, with an average holding period of 8 days.

Multi-Layer Risk Management System:

- Layer 1 (Endogenous Risk Control): This layer determines dynamic stop-loss and take-profit levels based on each asset's specific realized volatility and historical pattern recognition. It is designed to preserve capital while capturing medium-term convex moves.
- Layer 2 (Exogenous Risk Allocation): This layer uses Expected Shortfall (ES) targeting to dynamically size positions. The total contract exposure is determined by portfolio-level risk constraints, macro volatility inputs, and cross-asset correlation structures, ensuring a balanced risk-return profile for the overall portfolio.
